

Please note that these terms and conditions (these "Terms") apply only to the undergraduate and postgraduate courses, programmes and modules designed and delivered by The University of Law Limited (No.07933838) (the "University") in or, (for online delivery) from the United Kingdom ("UK") or any other location excluding Hong Kong (each referred to in these Terms as a "Course" and together, the "Courses").

These Terms do not apply to Apprenticeships. The Apprenticeships Terms and Conditions are available at www.law.ac.uk/student-terms-and-conditions/.

By reserving a place on one of the Courses you enter into a legally binding contract with the University which can only be varied by agreement in writing. You accept and agree to be bound by these Terms which include the fee schedule relating to your Course (the "Fee Schedule") and any Instalment Options Schedule (if relevant, see also paragraph 3.5).

Your acceptance has immediate cost implications and creates financial commitments. Your attention is drawn in particular to paragraphs 2, 3, 4 and 5.

Fees and Instalment Schedules →

Terms and conditions

1. When this contract starts

- 1.1. As soon as you accept your offer of a place on a Course at the University, your contract with the University will start (and any applicable Cooling Off Period as described in paragraph 4 of these Terms will also start).

2. Non-financial obligations

- 2.1. By reserving a place on your Course you accept and agree to be bound by and comply with:
  - 2.1.1. all University policies that we publish (and update) on our website at <https://www.law.ac.uk/policies/> from time to time including policies concerning: Accessibility, Cookies and Privacy, Data Protection (including the Data Protection Declaration), Data Retention, Disability Support, Diversity, Intermision, Modern Slavery, Safeguarding, Student Behaviour (including the Student Code of Behaviour), Student Charter, Student Discipline (including the Student Discipline Regulations), Terms and Conditions of Website Use, Student Visa, Right to Study and Website Disclaimer;
  - 2.1.2. all rules and regulations relating to your Course contained in the student handbook including (without limitation) attendance and disciplinary rules, IT, exam rules, assessment regulations and appeals;
  - 2.1.3. all eligibility requirements of the relevant regulatory or validating body for your Course as detailed in your offer documentation, including (in each case without limitation and where applicable), obtaining membership, and compliance with any "character and suitability" criteria;

2.1.4. the University's own academic, English language and other eligibility requirements for your Course which you are required to meet prior to your enrolment; and

2.1.5. any disability support agreements applicable to your Course.

3. Course fees

3.1. Course fees include: tuition, interactive learning resources, and first attempt examination or assessment fees sat at any University of Law managed campus across England but, for the avoidance of doubt may exclude those campuses managed by other universities at which your Course may be offered.

3.2. Course fees exclude: reassessments and any administration fee for arranging examinations or assessments which you sit overseas, each of which will be charged for separately.

3.3. Our administration fee is payable for any first attempt examinations or assessments and reassessments sat overseas. However, please note that external institutions may also charge further fees for hosting any University assessments or reassessments and this is not covered by our administration fee. We review our administration fee on an annual basis, taking into account UK inflation rates and other costs. The current administration fee is published on the University's website.

3.4. Current fees for your Course are detailed in your offer and can be seen in your Fee Schedule. We review our fees on an annual basis, taking into account UK inflation rates and other costs.

3.5. Your Fee Schedule and the University's undergraduate and postgraduate instalment options schedules (each an "Instalment Options Schedule") will be periodically updated once the fees for the forthcoming academic year are finalised and made available on the University's website.

3.6. If you are exempted from any part of your Course, your Course fees will be detailed in separate documentation and correspondence along with details of payment and cancellation, all of which form part of these Terms.

3.7. If, for any reason, a deposit is required for your Course (as defined in your Fee Schedule, the "Deposit"), this will be clearly indicated on your Fee Schedule and also confirmed to you in your offer letter.

3.8. If you are assessed as an Overseas fee payer in accordance with paragraph 9.1 you may be required to make a pre-payment to accept your place on your Course (defined in your Fee Schedule as the "International Acceptance Payment"). This will be referred to in your Fee Schedule and also confirmed to you in your offer letter.

3.9. The International Acceptance Payment is a pre-payment towards your Course fees. Please note that the process for refunds of the International Acceptance Payment is the same as for refunds for Course fees and will be made in accordance with the University Refund and Compensation policy available here.

- 3.10. Tuition fees are likely to increase for every new academic year and for new intakes of each Course. Although our undergraduate fee increases will not exceed the Government's fee cap, you should be aware that you may be charged different fees for subsequent years of your Course.
- 3.11. Where applicable, students will pay differential fees depending on their residency status within the UK. If your Course has separate Course fees for Home Students and International students, when you are offered a place, the University will confirm the residency status that has been applied to you. That in turn with the relevant Fee Schedule will determine the fees that you will be charged to undertake your Course. Details of how that status will be determined can be found in paragraph 9 of these Terms, Definition of a Home Student for fee status decisions.
- 3.12. Course fees must be paid in accordance with the Fee Schedule or as detailed separately above.
- 3.13. Late payment may lead to cancellation of your Course place by the University.
- 3.14. If you have financial sponsorship and, for any reason, you are required to pay a Deposit, you should pay such Deposit yourself and then claim the amount from your sponsor.
- 3.15. Please note that even if someone other than you makes any payment, or agrees to make any payment on your behalf, you remain liable for full payment until the University has received cleared funds. Any rights the University may have against the payer are not affected.
- 3.16. If you have been awarded a University of Law scholarship, bursary, award or promotional discount (each an "Award"), you will receive your Award according to the specific terms and conditions applicable to that Award.
- 3.17. In the event that you need to take a reassessment for any part of your Course you must pay the prescribed fee on registration for the reassessment.
- 3.18. If you do not pay your Course fees or reassessment fees in accordance with these Terms, the University reserves the right to withdraw any offer, cancel your accepted place on your Course, exclude you from any relevant assessment or reassessment, leave your assessment or reassessment unmarked, or withhold assessment or reassessment results and materials for your Course.

4. Your statutory right to cancel

Your statutory right to cancel your place after accepting an offer.

- 4.8. You will not be responsible for paying any further sums to us.

If your course has already started:

- 4.9. If you tell us you want to cancel within the Cooling Off Period and your Course has already started, we will refund to you any Deposit you have paid and any part of the Relevant Course Fee that you have already paid. However, we will be entitled to deduct from that refund the cost of any materials already provided to you and if you have attended any part of your Course, a proportionate amount of your Relevant Course Fee to reflect your attendance on that Course up until the time that you tell us that you wish to cancel.
- 4.10. Except as we have explained above, you will not be responsible for paying any further sums to us.

How we will refund you if you cancel within the Cooling Off Period

- 4.11. Where we need to refund any payments you have already made to us, we will do that using the same means of payment as you used to pay us.

How to exercise your right to cancel within the Cooling Off Period

9. Definition of a Home Student for fee status decisions

- 9.1. There are two categories of fee status, 'Home' and 'Overseas'. Your Course may have separate Course fees for Home and International students. On receipt of your application the University will carry out an assessment of your fee status and will determine your applicable tuition fees. This decision is based on guidelines provided by the Department of Education: Education (Fees and Awards) Regulations 1997. These regulations enable individual institutions i.e., the University, to classify the fee status of students. The onus is on individual students to satisfy the institution that they meet the criteria to be classified as Home status for the purpose of fees.
- 9.2. Assessments are based on the information and facts that you provide at the time of your initial application.
- 9.3. Please click here for more information on the specific regulations relating to the assessment of Home and International students and how students can appeal these decisions.

10. International students

Student Route Visa Sponsorship

- 10.1. If you are not a citizen of the UK and you do not hold immigration permission that allows you to study in the UK, it is your responsibility to obtain from the UK Home Office an appropriate student visa known as a student route visa ("Student Route Visa"), which:
  - 10.1.1. authorises you to remain in the UK in order to study your Course;
  - 10.1.2. extends for the duration of the Course; and
  - 10.1.3. has been issued on the basis of the Confirmation of Acceptance for Study ("CAS") related to the University's offer of a place on the Course.
- 10.2. If you need to be sponsored under the Student Route Visa of the Home Office pointsbased system, the University must issue you with a CAS before you can apply for your Student Route Visa. The University will assess you and determine whether you are eligible for a CAS. The University will also require you to pay either the International Acceptance Payment or a 'pre-payment' towards your Course fees and will inform you as to when this pre-payment must be made.

In accordance with paragraph 5.13.2 the University may implement deadlines to manage the Student Route Visa sponsorship process. In the event that you make the pre-payment, but do not meet these deadlines, any refund due to you of the prepayment will be made in accordance with the University Refund and Compensation policy available here. All applicable deadlines will be communicated to you in advance and/or available at <https://www.law.ac.uk/students/international/uk-visarequirements/receiving-a-cas/>. Failure to meet those deadlines may result in your application being cancelled by the University in accordance with paragraph 5.13.

- 10.3. Please note that if your Course is an online course and you are an International student you will not be eligible for Student Route Visa sponsorship for your Course. However, you may require another type of visa to attend study weekends or assessments. In these circumstances, the University will provide you with a supporting letter to apply for a visitor visa.
- 10.4. If you are unsure whether your Course is eligible for Student Route Visa sponsorship or if you require a Visitor Visa, please contact Student Immigration Compliance & Advice at visacompliance@law.ac.uk for further guidance.
- 10.5. If you are an International student who has to obtain a Student Route Visa, the University will:
  - 10.5.1. issue you with a CAS as long as we have received the following confirmation from you:
    - 10.5.1.1. that you have met all University requirements whether academic or otherwise;

- 10.5.1.2. if separately required, that you have met the English language conditions prescribed for your entry to the Course or by the Home Office; and
    - 10.5.1.3. that you have met all the requirements for visa sponsorship as outlined in our Student Visa Policy available here.
  - 10.5.2. communicate all deadlines associated with your Student Route Visa sponsorship by email and/or on the University website at www.law.ac.uk/students/international/uk-visarequirements/receiving-acas/.
  - 10.5.3. provide in a timely, comprehensive and comprehensible manner such guidance as you may require regarding the Student Route Visa sponsorship process and what you need to do in order to apply for the Student Route Visa.
  - 10.5.4. respond fully and speedily to any request for information or documentation which we are asked to supply in connection with an application for the Student Route Visa.
- 10.6. If you are an International student who has to obtain a Student Route Visa, you will:
- 10.6.1. supply us with all the documents requested, either original or certified copies (as stipulated by us);
  - 10.6.2. ensure that your application for the Student Route Visa is accurate, submitted in a timely manner and supported by any documentation required by the Home Office;
  - 10.6.3. comply with all University deadlines and any deadlines set by UKVI that the University will communicate with you in accordance with paragraph 10.5.2;
  - 10.6.4. provide us with all of the information, which we reasonably require during the Student Route Visa's term which may relate, amongst other things, to:
    - 10.6.4.1. your UK address and telephone numbers; and
    - 10.6.4.2. your attendance at and absences from the classes or assessments prescribed for the Course;
  - 10.6.5. comply with all conditions attached to the Student Route Visa including academic engagement requirements; and
  - 10.6.6. notify the University immediately and via visacompliance@law.ac.uk of any change in your circumstances which could affect your ability to comply with the conditions attached to the Student Route Visa, including academic engagement requirements.

All Non-UK nationals

- 10.7. The following applies to all students who are not nationals of the UK:
- 10.7.1. if, on initial registration, you are unable to produce all proof of eligibility to study on the programme and any other documents specified by the University, the University will be entitled to:

  - 10.7.5. retain, or recover from you, any Deposit (should you have been required to pay one for any reason), Course fees or other sums in accordance with your Fee Schedule.
- 10.8. If you are an international student sponsored by the University and your Student Route Visa application is refused:
- 10.8.1. you will inform Student Immigration Compliance & Advice within two weeks upon receiving the Student Route Visa application outcome, submitting the visa refusal document issued by UKVI; and

11. English language requirements

- 11.1. If you have met our English language requirements but your contact with the University prior to or during your Course leads us to reasonably believe that your English language ability would be likely to seriously jeopardise your success on your Course, we may ask you to demonstrate your English language ability by undertaking an English language test recognised by the University as set out in our English Language Policy (available at <https://www.law.ac.uk/policies/>) at the University's expense. If you do not meet the minimum English language requirements for your Course as specified on our website, the University will be entitled to withdraw you from your Course. In such circumstances, the University will have no liability to you but will refund to you any Course fees you have already paid minus an administrative sum of £250.

- 11.2. If you have any concerns about this you must contact study@law.ac.uk as soon as possible.

12. General

- 12.1. The University will do all it reasonably can to deliver your Course in accordance with the Course description given on the University's website as at the Course start date. However, the University may need to make variations to your Course which it considers to be necessary including:
- 12.1.1. to reflect changes to the theory in an area of research or practices around the subject or its delivery;
  - 12.1.2. as a result of a commissioning or accrediting body requiring certain content to be added to or changed within your Course; and
  - 12.1.3. if your educational experience would be or would be likely to be impaired if changes were not made to your Course.
- 12.2. Changes made by the University may include changes to the content and structure of your Course as well as the location, dates, times and method of its delivery. Nevertheless, prior to making any change to your Course which the University reasonably believes would result in you receiving a substantially different Course or service from us to what you agreed to when accepting your place on a Course (a "substantial change"), the University will notify you in writing.
- 12.3. If any change we propose would amount to a substantial change, you will be given the opportunity to:
- 12.3.1. transfer to a different Course (save for those Courses where Transfer is not permitted under paragraph 8 of these Terms); or
  - 12.3.2. cancel your place on your Course without incurring any penalties. If you wish to do this, you must give the University written notice within 14 days of being notified by the University of a substantial change to your Course. Where you have told us you wish to cancel your place on your Course, the University will refund to you in full any instalments of your Course fees already paid, including any Deposit (should you have been required to pay one for any reason). The University will not provide you with any other compensation.
- 12.4. These Terms are governed by English law and where necessary you can bring legal proceedings against us in the English courts. If you live in Scotland or Northern Ireland, you may also bring proceedings in the Scottish Courts or Northern Irish Courts (as appropriate).

- 12.5. The University may transfer its rights and obligations under these Terms to another organisation. We will always tell you in writing if this happens and we will ensure that the transfer will not affect your rights under the contract. If you are unhappy with the transfer you may contact us to end the contract within two weeks of us telling you about it and we will refund you any payments you have made in advance for services not provided.
- 12.6. Even if the University delays in enforcing these Terms, the University can still enforce them later. If the University does not insist immediately that you do anything you are required to do under these Terms, or if the University delays in taking steps against you if you break these Terms, it will not mean that you do not have to do those things or prevent the University from taking steps against you at a later date.
- 12.7. Nobody else has any rights under this contract. This contract is between you and the University. No other person shall have any rights to enforce any of its terms.
- 12.8. If a court finds part of this contract illegal, the rest will continue in force. Each of the paragraphs of these Terms operates separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful, the remaining paragraphs will remain in full force and effect.
- 12.9. Your contract with the University is made up of these Terms, your Fee Schedule, the Instalment Options Schedule (where applicable) and any other documents which we have expressly told you about either in these Terms or in the Fee Schedule.
- 12.10. Reference in these terms and conditions (or in our policies at paragraph 2.1.1) to any:
  - 12.10.1. statute, regulation or other legislation, including subordinate legislation;
  - 12.10.2. government agencies, departments or regulatory bodies, such as UKVI and the Home Office;
  - 12.10.3. requirements imposed by Government agencies or departments or regulatory bodies shall include any replacement, amendment, re-enactment or extension of such legislation, department, agency or requirement as made from time to time.

If you accepted your place on your Course prior to 8 July 2025, the above Terms and Conditions will not apply to you. If you have not previously been sent your applicable terms and conditions you can obtain a copy by e-mailing admissions@law.ac.uk.
